

EDUCATION

University of Luxembourg Ph.D. in Political Science Dissertation: The politics of moral hazard in Europe's economic and monetary union Supervision committee members: David Howarth (supervisor), Amandine Crespy, Kenneth Dyson	2020-2024 (expected)
College of Europe M.A. in European Political and Governance Studies, mention "very good"	2018-2019
Paris-Dauphine University-PSL Master's degree in International Economics, mention "good"	2016-2017
Paris-Dauphine University-PSL & Autonomous University of Madrid Double bachelor's degree in Economics	2012-2016

EMPLOYMENT

University of Luxembourg Doctoral Researcher, Institute of Political Science	September 2020-current position
College of Europe, Bruges Academic Assistant, Department of European Political and Governance Studies	August 2019-August 2020
Embassy of the Argentine Republic, Brussels Assistant Economist, Economic and Commercial Section	February 2018-August 2018
France Stratégie – Prime Minister's Office, Paris Junior Analyst, Economics Department	September 2016-September 2017 (apprenticeship)

PUBLICATIONS

"The political use of the term "moral hazard": evidence from policymakers of the Eurozone", Bruges Political Research Papers, 2019, N° 78.

"The evolution of Central Banking in Europe" (with Michele Chang and Gabriel Glöckler) in Olivier Costa and Steven Van Hecke (eds) Is Europe back in the driver's seat? The Union at a turning point in time (work in progress)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

College of Europe , Teaching assistant The political economy of European integration – Prof. Michele Chang (tutorials)	Winter 2019
Politics and policies of the EU – Prof. Olivier Costa (discussion groups)	Winter 2019
Research seminars – Prof. Dermot Hodson and Prof. Martin Westlake (assistance with MA theses supervision)	Summer 2020

GRANTS

Dauphine Foundation Scholarship	2014-2015
---------------------------------	-----------

REVIEWS

Review of manuscripts for the Journal of European Integration	Since March 2021
--	------------------

LANGUAGES

French (native), Spanish (native), English (fluent), German (beginner)